

BILSTER BERG: Facts & Figures

Grounds, ecological compensation area

86 hectares of fenced-in grounds with driving modules

106 hectares of ecological compensation land outside of the fenced-in area

Topography and facilities

4.2 km of track

44 crests and dips

19 curves

26% downhill gradient

21% incline

28 track marshals

26 HD cameras

8 pit halls, each with an area of either 380 or 570 m²

19 rental halls, each with an area of 380 m²

9,000 m² upper paddock

6,500 m² lower paddock

Investments, construction measures

EUR 34 million total volume

EUR 8 million in start-up costs

EUR 27 million in construction costs; of which EUR 15 million went to regional contractors

180 shareholders

20-month construction period

200 construction workers

Excavated soil = 400,000 m³

Crushed rock = 80,000 m³

Concrete = 4,500 m³

Sand/gravel = 25,000 m³

Steel = 700 metric tons

Asphalt = 22,000 m³

Pipes/pipelines = 55,000 m

Drainage channels = 4,400 m

Cabling = 86,000 m

Crash barriers: 25,000 m

Tire walls = 50,000 tires held together with 250,000 screws

Fencing: 8,500 m

Environmental measures

400 large trees (new oaks, hazels, lindens, wild pears, maples, etc., planted)

20,000 small trees and bushes (field maples, sycamores, wild cherries, blackthorns, hawthorns, etc., planted)

6100 m³ of orchid-rich rough pastureland preserved

20 Galloway cattle

40 dormouse boxes

2 pond biotopes for great crested newts

100 replacement bat roosts

21 beehives with bee colonies

2 bat houses and 1 bat hill

4 mapped burial mounds (historic preservation)